

New College Library Archives and Manuscripts

Interim Handlist

Collection reference	MS BOX 24.1 to 5
Collection title	Sermons by Robert Bowis (c.1672-1741), 'The historie of the origine and progress of saint-invocation and adoration' etc., Samaritan Pentateuch (1909), biography of Rev John Ritchie, Kilmarnock; and address by Rev Dr Hugh Watt (c.1880-1968) (1711-1946).
Shelfmark(s)	MS BOX 24.1-5
About this handlist	Scan of an older typescript list

MSS BOX 24.1.

BOWIS (Robert) Minister of Rattray. Sermons, 1711-12. Notebook, 16 x 10 cm. 236p.

MSS BOX 24.2.

The HISTORIE of the origine and progress of saint-invocation and adoration. 4^o 92p. 17th c. Has bd with it (in the same hand):
Historie of the house of our Ladie att Lauretta [4p]; ane Historicall account of the origine & progres of images and yr worship [40p];
Historie of reliques [48p]; the Historie of the signe of the Cross [12p].

MSS BOX 24.3.

Roll of the Pentateuch in Samaritan script. Bought in the synagogue of Nablous ... on 1st April 1909. Scroll. 30 cm. in height.

MSS BOX 24.4.

McNAIR (Alexander) The Rev. John Ritchie, the second minister of Clerk's Lane Presbyterian Church [Kilmarnock]. 4^o 216 leaves. Press cuttings from Kilmarnock standard, Oct.25 1913-Oct.3 1914, mounted on paper, with MS corrections.

MSS BOX 24.5.

WATT (Hugh) New College, Edinburgh. Inaugural address on October 3rd 1946 in the Martin Hall at the opening of the winter session on his assumption of office. 4^o 21 leaves. Typescript.